A LITTLE NONSENSE. Disastrous Result of a "Shopping" Expedition In Chicago.

"Yes," said Lucile, "I know I've been called stiff, but I never realized it was true until the other day."

"Why, what happened?" asked

Carolyn.
"Well, you know what lovely hats Mme. Blank makes. Catrie and I were down in the city the first of the week-just nosing around, you know-and we thought we'd wander in and try on some hats. Of course we didn't want to buy any, but we thought there'd be no harm in trying them on."

"Of course not," interrupted Car-

Well, as I was saying, we wandered in and were having a perfect-ly beautiful time trying on first one hat and then another. Finally I spied a dream in green and blue. Carrie was over at the other end of the room admiring a scarlet creation, and so I looked at it critically, as if I really meant to buy, you know, and put it on.

"Oh, it was a beauty really. I stepped back of a stand to the glass where the models are reflectedthey're always the best, you knowto get a good view. It was very be-coming. I was quite spellbound. A woman came in and stood just back of me. She looked at me for a full-minute, and then she suddenly grasped my shoulders and carefully turned me around, all the time with eyes fastened on my hat." "The horrid thing! What did you say?"

"Madam,' I said in my freeziest tones, 'do you wish to look at this hat?""

"And what did she do?" "Do! Why, she just shricked:
"Oh, how you frightened me! I thought you were a model!" And she turned and fled from the store." -Chicago Chronicle.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remendy, I can recommend it with the utmost confidence. It has done good work for me and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH S. MEYERS, 64—Thirty-seventh street, Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by Richard Gibson druggist.
